Baker Creative Internationally Recognized for Design Work

Groveport, OH- Baker Creative is a Gold Award recipient for the MarCom Awards 2013 competition in the category of Design(Web)/ Website Redesign. The MarCom Awards is an international competition that recognizes outstanding creative achievements for professionals in the communications and marketing industry. Baker Creative joins an elite group of Gold Award recipients; only 22 percent of the 6,500 entries from the United States and abroad received this prestigious award.

Baker Creative, a full-service agency, located in Groveport, Ohio, recently revamped its company website to mirror its bold, holistic approach to creating business solutions. From the use of compelling graphics to video case studies, the agency's goal when redesigning the website was to showcase the unique ways they help their clients to harness the power of branding. This is the agency's second MarCom Gold Award. They received their first MarCom award in 2012 in the category of Public Relations Crisis Communication Response.
