FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 29, 2009

Baker Creative featured in "Columbus CEO"

COLUMBUS-Positioned amongst some of the brightest business women in Central Ohio, Baker Creative principal Michele Baker Cuthbert will be featured in "Columbus C.E.O." magazine.

The May 2009 article called "Biz Ladies" features Cuthbert and seven Columbus area business women as they discuss their lives as executives. Topics of interest include the best/worst parts of their jobs, maintaining a work-life balance, women-specific challenges in the workplace, biggest inspirations, future plans and glass ceilings.

"I am so honored to be chosen for this article along side such brilliant women," said Cuthbert. "The diversity in our backgrounds shows that women are making an impact in the business world."

Other executives profiled in the article are April Bott of Bott Law Group; Wendy Goldstein of CEO and creative director of Costume Specialists; Dr. Teresa Long, Columbus Health Commissioner; Kathie Mancini, CEO of Molina Healthcare and Vicky Nosbisch, president and founder of Horizon Datacom Solutions.

Columbus C.E.O. magazine is a monthly publication aimed that provides relevant coverage of topics important to business professionals of Central Ohio.
